The

Company will provide written notice to the employee of any such action, and will copy the Union on all such notices. An employee who has completed his/her probationary period will have access to the grievance process.

2. The Company will follow a progressive discipline system. This will not limit the Company's ability to discharge employees for a single serious offense to hold an employee out of service without pay, or to issue a disciplinary suspension if circumstances so warrant.
3. If the Company intends to question a non-probationary employee as part of an investigation that, with reasonable foreseeability, could result in discipline against that employee, the Company will inform the employee that he/she has the right to have a Union representative present during the questioning. If the employee elects to have a Union representative present, the Union representative will not interfere with the Company's questioning, but at the conclusion of the Company's questioning will be given an opportunity to ask clarifying questions. The Union representative will be afforded a reasonable opportunity to consult with the employee before questioning begins. This Section A.3 will not apply to Supervisor inquiries of employees in the normal course of work.

If circumstances require an employee to be held out of service without pay and without charge for greater than 30 calendar days, the employee revert to paid status beginning of the 31st day provided employee otherwise is fully qualified and available to work. Upon issuance of the proposed charges, the parties will meet to schedule the investigative review hearing within 15 calendar days.
5. No employee will be disciplined to the extent of loss of pay (other than for insubordination, job abandonment or failure to attend a scheduled investigatory meeting) or discharged from employment without a prompt, fair and impartial investigative hearing at which he may be represented and assisted by Union

Representatives. Prior to the hearing! the Company will give the Union and employee copies of any previous disciplinary action letters which are to be considered, and the Company will advise the Union in writing of the precise charges against the employee. The Union and employee will have at least 48 hours advance notice (excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and Holidays) prior to any disciplinary hearing, and at least 48 hours (excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and Holidays) before the hearing the Company and the Union will provide to each other copies of documents or records upon which they intend to rely at the hearing. The employee charged or under investigation will be compensated for time spent in the investigation or hearing at his/her straight-time rate.

Regardless of whether the employee requests removal, disciplinary letters more than 12 months old may not be considered by the Company as part of the employee's past record when assessing subsequent discipline.
 - a. In instances of disciplinary discharges or discipline involving a violation of the Company's policy against harassment, discrimination, or retaliation (H&D Policy), the record will, pursuant to Section A. above, be removed from the employee's personnel file. However, records will remain in the Company's corporate fair employment practices files for 48 months and during that period may be considered in connection with future alleged instances of the employee's violation of the Company's H&D policy.
 - b. In the event that the Company determines that an employee holding a Lead classification is not meeting the qualifications and performance requirements of the position, the following process will normally apply:

- i. The Company will provide the employee with coaching and counseling that makes the employee aware of his/her performance deficiencies and the improvements or corrections required to bring his/her performance to acceptable levels to remain in the lead position.
- ii. If the employee's performance does not improve to acceptable levels, the Company will provide targeted training reasonably calculated to assist the employee in making the required improvements or corrections.
- iii. If the employee continues to perform below acceptable levels, a written warning will document that fact and formally notify the employee that failure to correct his/her performance to a level meeting the qualifications and performance requirements of the Lead position will result in the employee being returned to the basic classification associated with the position. This written warning will remain in effect for 12 months.
- iv. Regardless of whether or when the Company determines that the employee either has improved to acceptable levels or should be returned to the basic classification.
- v. At any time after issuance of the written warning while it remains in effect, the Company may return the employee to the basic classification based on its judgment that the employee does not meet the minimally acceptable qualifications and performance requirements of the Lead position.
- vi. As circumstances warrant, these performance improvement steps may be accelerated or escalated to correct the employee's conduct. Documentation is not subject to automatic purging and will remain in the employee's file until it expires according to its terms.

B. Grievance

1. A grievance is defined as any complaint or dispute whereby either party alleges that the other party has violated a provision of this agreement. All grievance which may arise between the Union and the Company, or any employee or group of employees, shall be adjusted in accordance with the following grievance procedures:
 - a. Purpose. If an employee, group of employees, or the Union believes that the Company has either violated the Agreement in how it disciplined or discharged an employee or interpreted or applied the Agreement, the complaint should be settled at the lowest possible level based upon the facts and common sense under the following procedures. The Company will designate a representative(s) at each location where persons covered by this Agreement are employed who is empowered to settle all local grievances not involving change in Company policy, or interpretations, or changes in the intent and purpose of this Agreement.

2. Procedures

- a. Time Limits. Because the ability to research or document issues decreases over time, complaints must be lodged promptly after the disputed event occurs. The Company is not responsible for any monetary remedy extending more than 30 days prior to the filing of the complaint in writing in Step 1. Any Company answers not appealed in writing within the required time limits for any step of the procedure will be considered closed on the basis of the Company's answer, unless the time limits have been extended by mutual written agreement. Complaints not timely answered by the Company are considered denied and may immediately be appealed to the next step of the procedure. Time limits for hearings, appeals, decisions, and System Board responses exclude Saturdays, Sundays, and Holidays.
- b. Stenographic Record. Whenever the parties agree that a stenographic record should be made of any investigation or hearing provided for in this agreement, the cost will be shared equally by both parties to the dispute. When it is not mutually agreed that such a stenographic record should be made, the party that desires such stenographic record may obtain and pay for it. A copy of such stenographic record will be furnished to the other party to the dispute upon request at pro rata cost. The cost of any additional copies requested by either party will be paid by the party requesting them, whether the stenographic record is taken by mutual agreement or otherwise.
- c. Management Grievance. The Company may file a grievance against the Union. Any such grievances will be filed in writing with the Union's President and Directing General Chairperson, who will provide a written answer within 14 days. If the answer is unsatisfactory, the Company may appeal the grievance to the System Board within 14 days following receipt of the Union's answer.

3. Steps

a. Step 1

- i. If an employee has a complaint, he should first discuss the matter with his Supervisor, who will attempt to settle the matter.

- ii. If the issue is not satisfactorily resolved, the employee may request a Steward to handle the matter with the Supervisor.
- iii. If the matter is still not resolved within 30 days of when the employee first knew or should have known of the event giving rise to the dispute, the Steward must put the facts in writing on a standard form provided by the Company and give it to the Supervisor, who has 3 days to give the Union a written response. The complaint form and response will not prejudice either party from raising facts or arguments at future steps of this Grievance Procedure.

b. Step 2

- i. If the Union decides to pursue the complaint further, it must be filed in writing with the Company on a standard grievance form within 15 days from the time for the Supervisor's written response in Step 1. Unless other provisions in Step 2 apply, the grievance will be considered in a hearing between local management representative {s) and the Local Union Committee within 15 days of the Company receiving the Step 2 grievance form'. The Company will provide a written answer to the grievance within 5 days after discussions have concluded. If it is not satisfied with the response, the Union may appeal the grievance to Step 3 of the procedure within 15 days from the Company's written answer. This appeal may contain any disputed or additional germane facts.
- ii. At the request of either party, contract interpretation grievances concerning the intent rather than the application of the Agreement will not be heard in a Step 2 grievance hearing, but instead may be submitted directly to Step 3 of this Grievance Procedure. If upon review at Step 3 the parties agree that a grievance submitted under this Section relates to contract application rather than intent, the grievance will be returned directly to Step 2 for full consideration of all issues.

c. Step 3

- i. If not settled earlier, the grievance will be reviewed by representatives appointed by the Company and Union within 10 days of its referral to Step 3. The Company will provide a written answer within 14 days of this review. If the Union decides to further appeal the answer to the System Board, within 40 days from the Company's answer must perfect all facts in a written Submission to the Company and the System General Chairman.

C. Arbitration

1. If any grievance cannot be settled pursuant to the grievance procedure, either party may take the matter to arbitration by notifying the other party, in writing, of such decision. If the written arbitration notification is not received within sixty (60) calendar days of the Company's written Step 2 answer, the matter shall be considered settled.
2. The grievance shall be submitted to an arbitrator whom the parties will attempt to choose by mutual agreement, within fourteen (14) calendar days after the service of notice has been completed.
 - a. In the event the Company and the Union are unable to agree on the selection of an arbitrator, they shall request the Federal Mediation & Conciliation Service (FMCS) to provide a list of arbitrators residing in California from which an arbitrator shall be chosen as follows: Either party may reject the initial list and ask for a second list, if such request is made within ten (10) days of receiving the initial list, if neither party rejects the initial list, each party shall alternately strike names from the panel and the remaining arbitrator shall serve in the case. The party filing the grievance shall strike first. The request to FMCS must be made within ten (10) days from the end of the period provided for the parties to mutually agree upon the arbitrator. The Union's failure to make a timely request to FMCS constitutes acceptance of the Company's last position. The rules set by FMCS shall apply, unless otherwise set forth in this Agreement.
3. The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding upon the Company, the Union, and the employees, and in no event shall the arbitrator have any power to add to, subtract from, change, or modify any provision of this Agreement.
4. The arbitrator may rule on only a single grievance unless the parties mutually agree otherwise in writing.
5. The fees of the arbitrator shall be the responsibility of the losing party in the arbitration.
6. Any back pay awarded shall be mitigated by other compensation received by any employee from any source while he/she was in a suspended, discharged, laid off, or other inactive status. The intent of this clause is to make the employee "whole".
