

Hawaiian Airlines Negotiations Update

November 9, 2021

Aloha Sisters and Brothers of Hawaiian Airlines,

When we last communicated with you, we informed you that your joint District Lodge 141 and 142 negotiation committee had made some progress in reaching a possible Tentative Agreement. Still, we could not agree on issues involving Health Insurance, the contracting out of covered work, job security, wages, and other benefits. Both sides have agreed to meet the week of November 14th in an attempt to bring our sisters and brothers the Tentative Agreement that recognizes and honors the hard work each one of you does, especially through the COVID-19 pandemic.

Our goal is to prevent the need to enter Section Six negotiations which would start this process over. As soon as the talks conclude next week, we will provide you with an update on where we stand.

We thank you for your patience and support in obtaining the contract you have earned and deserve.

In Solidarity,
