Article 10 (Last Paragraph)

Vaccinations

The Company may not unilaterally impose a vaccination requirement on an employe covered by this agreement except when required by law or by the terms of a government contract. This section shall not limit the Company's ability to offer voluntary incentives to employees covered by this agreement to encourage vaccination.